The will but Skin and Film, while rank correption, mining all within, infacts unseen. Yes, a dreadful cough will "i feet unseen." If you do not use some kindly expected and like MRS. JERVIS'S cold candy—yes, "it will alia and him" if you do not lubricate and heal with some stiendly compound like Mrs. Jervis's cold candy. Sold by Mrs. W. Jervis, No. 366 Broadway.

"Frail Anatomy," why will you be con-rumed with the hacking cough, when a delightful com-pound kn wn as Mrs. JERVIS'S cold candy, will southe and exstinct that "featering care." As the cold weather comes on, it ories and sparkins at the thoughts of its useful mission, during the winter months—so pocketable, so deli-cious, so healing.

Wealth may have its train of Sycophants, noteriety its hollow applause, but the self-satisfaction gained by true fame and a true use of Mrs. Jervis's Cold Candy is, without cavil, true sense. Mrs. Jervis's Cold Candy, the great lung and threat healer, is sold by Mrs. W. JERVIS, 356 Breadway, and by druggists generally.

Sad, Shady and Solitary must be the house that has not received the benefit of MRS. JERVIS'S cold candy, when the damp and dreary cough of an immate cahoes through the depolate rooms. For eoughs, colds, hearseness, seer throat, and other pulmonay complaints it has no rival.
